Resources

Rethinking Juvenile Justice: A Roadmap for Change

This report by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) provides a comprehensive overview of juvenile justice reform, highlighting best practices and innovative approaches that can be adopted to improve the system for all youth. The report covers topics such as system transformation, reentry, and data-driven decision-making, offering practical guidance and evidence-based strategies to support positive outcomes for youth in the justice system.

COVID-19 Resources for Children’s Services

The National Center for Youth Opportunity and Justice (NCYOJ) has assembled a comprehensive collection of resources to help youth-serving organizations navigate the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic. These resources include fact sheets, webinars, and articles on topics such as mental health, school safety, and youth engagement. Access the full collection to enhance your organization’s ability to respond to the needs of youth in your community.

Youth Engagement at the Federal Level: A Compilation of Strategies and Practices

This compilation of strategies and practices offers insights into how organizations at the federal level are engaging young people in policy development and decision-making. The included examples range from youth-led organizations to federal agencies that prioritize youth input and feedback. This resource is invaluable for those looking to develop or enhance youth engagement initiatives at the national level.

Impathy Youth Interaction Through Fair and Inclusive Justice

This initiative focuses on developing fair and inclusive justice systems that prioritize the well-being of youth. It includes resources and tools designed to help organizations implement fair and just practices, ensuring that every youth has the opportunity to participate fully in their legal process. Access the full collection to support your organization’s efforts in building a more just and equitable future for young people.

NCYOJ Spotlight

In this issue, we highlight the efforts of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation to improve the culture of health and promote just systems. The foundation is supporting numerous projects aimed at addressing health disparities and ensuring equitable access to care. Learn more about their work and how you can support these efforts in your community.

NCYOJ Events

Upcoming events include webinars, conferences, and forums focused on juvenile justice reform, youth engagement, and system transformation. Check the NCYOJ website or newsletter for the latest updates and how to participate.

Opportunities

CJOP FY 2020 Reducing Risk for Girls in the Juvenile Justice System

This program focuses on reducing risk for girls entering and moving through the juvenile justice system. It supports evidence-based interventions and innovative approaches to improve outcomes for girls involved in the justice system. Applications are accepted on an ongoing basis, so interested organizations are encouraged to review the program details and apply as soon as possible.

NCYOJ Events

Events focusing on juvenile justice reform, youth engagement, and system transformation are regularly scheduled. Visit the NCYOJ website for the most up-to-date information on upcoming events and how to register.

Acknowledgments

The NCYOJ team would like to thank the organizations and individuals who have contributed to the resources and events mentioned in this newsletter. Their dedication to improving the lives of young people is the driving force behind our mission to support system transformation and promote just systems.